The necessary superscription, due date for the receipt of quotations, the date up to which the rates will have to remain firm for acceptance and the name and address of officer to whom the quotation is to be sent are noted above. Any quotation received after the time fixed on the due date is liable to be rejected. Quotations not stipulating period of firmness and with price variation clause are liable to be rejected. The acceptance of the quotations will be subject to the following conditions.

1. Withdrawal from the quotation after it is accepted or failure to supply within a specified time or according to specifications will entail cancellation of the order and purchases being made at the offer's expenses from elsewhere, any loss incurred thereby being payable by the defaulting party. In such an event the Government reserves also the right to remove the defaulter's name from the list of Government suppliers permanently or for a specified number of years.
2. No representation for enhancement of price once accepted will be considered during the currency of the contract.
3. Any attempt on the part of tenderers or their agents to influence the Officers concerned in their favour by personal canvassing will disqualify the tenderers.
4. If any license or permit is required, tenderers must specify in their quotation and state the authority to whom application to be made.
5. The prices quoted should be inclusive of all taxes, duties, cesses, etc., which are or may become payable by the contractor under existing or future laws or rules of the country of origin/supply or delivery the course of execution of the contract.
6. Any sum of money due and payable to the successful tenderer or contractor from Government shall be adjusted against any sum of money due to Government from him under any other contracts.
7. Payment will be made only after completing the works upon the satisfactory performance of the work awarding authority.
8. Special conditions, if any, printed on the quotation sheets of the tenderer or attached with the tender will not be applicable to the contract unless they are expressly accepted in writing by the purchases.
